

'TREE DAY'

(Observed on OCTOBER 10th)

A Poem for the Day

DEAR ! LET'S PLANT A TREE

Oh my dear, let's plant a tree for peace
Oh my dear, let's sow a thought for peace
Oh my dear, let's plant more and more trees
Oh my dear, let's mend ecological imbalances.

If the environment is safeguarded first
We can challenge the changing climate,
The more and more trees we now plant
We can live rest assured in nature's delight.

Our initiative for a global climate change
Would influence millions to seek a change,
Why not, yes why not we roll-up our sleeves
And engage in planting more and more trees.

Moving towards a low carbon, sustainable path
Let us challenge to curtail the climate's wrath,
Let us ensure that 'The Billion Tree Campaign'
Ultimately would become a 'Peoples Campaign'.

Yes, let's plant a tree to ensure universal safety
Yes, let's sow a thought for the sake of humanity;
'Billion Tree Campaign' is the need of the hour,
It unites people of different faiths, oh my dear !
