

A Toxic Free Future & the 2020 SAICM Goal

Public interest, health, environment and Labor NGOs and CSO pay a vital role in protecting our human and natural environment for future generations.

The International POPs Elimination Network (IPEN) welcomes participants from the International Conference on Chemicals Management and the Global Civil Society Forum to this February 6th Lunchtime Side Event.

Opening

Mr. Mohamed Aly Abdel Salam El Banna
Chair of the Board - Day Hospital Institute for Rehabilitation & Development
Director - Middle East Arab HUB for IPEP Project, Egypt

NGO Perspective of the development of SAICM and the ICCM outcome

Professor Jamidu Katima
Dean - Faculty of Mechanical and Chemical Engineering, University of Dar Es Salaam

Examples of NGOs working towards the SAICM 2020

Mrs. Olga Speranskaya
Head of Program on Chemical Safety of Eco-Accord, Russian Federation

Working towards a Toxic Free Future & the IPEN Mission and Commitment

Dr. Romeo Quijano
President of Pesticide Action Network Philippines
Southern Co Chair of the International POPs Elimination Network (IPEN)

Open Question and Answer to follow

