Transport:

From the Airport to Siam City Hotel:

1. Sky-train: Currently there are two routes, the Sukhumvit Line and the Silom Line, which cover much of the central city and its many commercial, residential and tourist areas. The trains run daily between 6:00 am and 12:00 midnight with frequent services, about every 5 minutes. At the Siam City Hotel you are located conveniently just across the road from the Sky-train PhayaThai Station (exit 4) on the Sukhumvit Line. From here you can easily change to the Silom Line at Siam Station.
2. Limousine Airport Transfers: Limousine (Benz): Baht 1,600.-nett/car/one way (Max. 3 Passengers)
Van: Baht 2,000.-nett/van/one way (Max. 7 Passengers)

Remarks: Please note that non-utilized limousine transfers will be fully charged to Guest Account if cancellation is not made minimum four (4) hours prior to the flight details, as this fee is charged by the limousine company.

3. Airport Rail Link: Bangkok also extends its Mass Transit System to include a 28 km-long Airport Rail Link; running from Suvarnabhumi International Airport to central Bangkok. The Siam City Hotel will have a stop directly opposite at PhayaThai. Phyathai Station: This is the originating terminal of the SA City Line, which is located east of Phyathai Road linking Phyathai BTS Station. A Single-Journey ticket on the Express Line (direct from Suvarnabhumi Airport to Phyathai) will cost Baht 150 and take 15 minutes. On the City Line the cost is 45 baht and will take around 30 minutes, stopping at 6 stops (including PhayaThai) along the way.
4. Taxi from the airport to the hotel.

Accommodation:

Upon request, UNEP will book rooms at the hotel for delegates.
Cost: 2,700 Thai Baht per night on bed and breakfast basis.

Daily Subsistence Allowance (DSA):

DSA will be paid to sponsored delegates at the Siam City Hotel on 6 October 2011.
