

Acknowledgement

The Colombian Institute of Marine and Coastal Research (INVEMAR) Focal point of GIWA region 3 Caribbean Sea, would like to acknowledge the following:

- The Scientific project direction, the Project coordinator and Reports preparation and the Researchers Task team (see Annex I List of contributing authors) for their permanent advise, effort and, constant availability and readiness to attend all the study requirements.
- The Colombian Ministry of Environment, Housing and Territory Planning, for its unconditional support.
- The Regional Task team (see Annex I List of contributing authors), for their dedication, information supply, interest and continuous support.
- The Caribbean Small Islands governments and environmental authorities for facilitating representative experts (see Annex I List of contributing authors) to attend the project requirements and for providing information and data used in this assessment. The Focal point specially thanks the Sustainable Development and Environmental Unit of Saint Lucia Ministry of Physical Development and Environment and, the Department of Planning and Natural Resources of the US Virgin Islands Commission of Natural Resources and Coastal Zone Management, for their special support, through their experts, in the development of this project.
- The general advisors, consultants, special participants and general support Task team (see Annex I List of contributing authors) for their collaboration.
- The GIWA Caribbean Sea region coordinators, GIWA Core team, University of Kalmar, for their technical support and permanent support.
- The GEF, UNEP and Sida for providing the funding required to undertake the study.