This report for the Global International Waters Assessment is the result of two workshops and background desk research. The Editors are deeply grateful to the Executive Secretary of the Lake Chad Basin Commission, Engr. Muhammad Sani Adamu, for his very helpful consultations and insight, as well as genuine concern for finding a lasting solution to the problem of water scarcity affecting the Lake Chad Basin.

The Editors have been assisted in background research, coordination and the preparation and writing of this report by the Executive Secretariat of the Lake Chad Basin Commission, and in particular the following group:

Mr. Lambert Tam, Assistant Executive Secretary, for all his organisation efforts and approval for pre-financing of workshop arrangements; and the following for their coordination, assistance and encouragement: Mr. Martin Gbafolo, Director of the Department of Water Resources and Environment; Mr. Emmanuel Yonkie, Director of the Department of Documentation, Publication and Information; Mr. Mahamane Assane, Director of the Department of Planning, Monitoring and Evaluation of Projects; Mr. Jonathan Tochem, Director of the Department of Administration and Finance.

The invaluable contribution of the following people towards the organisation of workshops and the writing of this report is gratefully acknowledged:

Mrs. Asta Morombaye and Mr. Marcus Ediage Njumbe (Translators), for facilitating translation of discussions from English to French and vice versa; Mr. Diakite Nour (Assistant Accountant), for keeping the project accounts; Mr. Alphazazi Abdou (Documentalist), for preparation of the Conference Hall and facilities; Mr. Ramoni Yakubu (Technician), for solving electrical problems; Mr. Mohammed Bila (Programme Analyst), for ensuring that computers work; Mr. Sédick Ahmed (Hydrologist) and Mrs. Nana Ibrahim (Secretary).

Special thanks go to Mr. Abdoullahi Mahamat Yacoub for providing materials from FEWS archives.

The following regional experts and participants in the GIWA Task team are acknowledged for their wide range of advice, guidance, assistance and judgement during and outside of the two workshops:
