

SIDE EVENT: Blue Planet Prize

DATE: Monday, 20 February 2012

TIME: 13.45-14.45 pm

VENUE: Conference Room 10

Purpose/objective:

Bob Watson, Chief Scientific Advisor at the UK Department of Environment, Food and Rural Affairs and Camilla Toulmin, Director of the International Institute of Environment and Development will present a paper entitled "Environment and Development Challenges: The Imperative to Act", on behalf of the following Blue Planet Prize Laureates: Gro Harlem Brundtland, Paul Ehrlich, José Goldemberg, James Hansen, Amory Lovins, Gene Likens, James Lovelock, Suki Manabe, Bob May, Hal Mooney, Karl-Henrik Robèrt, Emil Salim, Gordon Sato, Susan Solomon, Nick Stern, MS Swaminathan, Bob Watson, Barefoot College, International institute of Environment and Development, International Union for the Conservation of Nature, and Conservation International.

Organizers: The Asahi Glass Foundation

Programme:

The one hour side event will consists of the following:

- The Asahi Glass Foundation Representative– 2-3 minutes explaining the Blue Planet Prize.
- Bob Watson and Camilla Toulmin – 10-12 minutes each presenting the key messages from the paper.
- Bob Watson to moderate a 30 minute Question and Answer Session – Bob Watson and Camilla Toulmin will be joined by Cyrie Sendashonga from IUCN.

For more details please contact:

Sheena Chana, sheena.chana@unep.org