...UNEP PROMOTES THE COHERENT IMPLEMENTATION OF THE ENVIRONMENTAL DIMENSION OF SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT WITHIN THE UNITED NATIONS SYSTEM...

Agenda 21 designated UNEP as the principal United Nations body in the field of the environment. This includes the development of international environmental law, in particular as concerns multilateral environmental agreements, and the provision of technical, legal and institutional advice to governments. UNEP cooperates closely with UNDP in its capacity-building activities in the field of environmental law.

...UNEP STAFF MEMBERS IVAR BASTE, HALIFA DRAMMEH AND MASA NAGAI WITH NORWEGIAN REPRESENTATIVE IDUNN EIDHEIM AT AN INTERGOVERNMENTAL MEETING TO DISCUSS THE BALI STRATEGIC PLAN...

Helping countries to develop and implement environmental law is central to the Bali Strategic Plan. In Africa, the Partnership for the Development of Environmental Law and Institutions in Africa (PADELIA) promotes sound and sustainable environmental management practices through the development and implementation of environmental laws. UNEP supports partnerships with environmental protection agencies and national judicial training institutes and has been instrumental in the establishment of Regional Judges' Forums.

...UNEP STAFF MEMBERS AND LEGAL EXPERTS FROM OVER 40 ASIAN AND AFRICAN COUNTRIES PARTICIPATE IN A NEW ASIAN-AFRICAN STRATEGIC PARTNERSHIP WORKSHOP IN INDONESIA...

UNEP supports South-South cooperation in environmental law to assist developing countries and countries with economies in transition in strengthening environmental law and institutions and build capacity. The Bandung roadmap for advancement of environmental law in support of the New Asian-African Strategic Partnership outlines key challenges. South-South cooperation is a key aspect of the Bali Strategic Plan on capacity-building and technology support.
