

Activities held in Mauritius on the occasion of the 2005 International Day for the Preservation of the Ozone Layer

The Minister of Environment & National Development and the Minister of Information Technology together with UNEP hosted a press conference to globally launch the new UNEP educational web site for children (www.ozzyozone.org).