

Activity 3.1

Case study analysis Insitutional capacity development and innovation at Makerere University

After reading Module 3 and Case Study 3, consider these questions, which will help you to analyse the case study.

Questions

In what way/s is Makerere University committed to sustainable development? How is this evident in its Vision, Mission and Development planning?

What are the challenges that the University is facing in implementing this vision?

What are the underlying assumptions, values and contextual factors that appear to be shaping the Makerere University strategies and plans?

What practical steps has the University taken to implement their vision towards sustainable development?

Are there any such developments/innovations evident in your university context?

What are the challenges that you face and how can these be overcome?

