

Conference on Cleaner Fuels and Vehicles for Eastern Europe, Caucasus and Central Asia (EECCA)

24-25 January 2008

Tbilisi, Georgia

Day 1
Moderator: REC Caucasus
	Opening Remarks
	Presentation of the Agenda/Tour de Table Moderator: Ruslan Zhechkov
EECCA Fuel and Vehicle Overview
	Lead-Free, Low Sulphur Fuels for Better Air Quality: The Systems Approach Elisa Dumitrescu, UNEP-Partnership for Clean Fuels and Vehicles (PCFV)
	World Overview of Cleaner Fuel and Vehicle Trends Michael Walsh, International Council on Clean Transportation
	Coffee break
	CEE/SEE Experience with Cleaner Fuels and Vehicles Ruslan Zhechkov, The Regional Environment Center for Central and Eastern Europe
	Fuel Quality and Vehicle Standards in EECCA Countries: Current Policy & Future Scenarios Keti Samadashvili, REC Caucasus
	Panel Discussion
	Lunch
Challenges and Opportunities for Cleaner Fuels and Vehicles
	Lowering Sulphur in Fuels and Transition to Lead-Free Petrol: Regional Refining Challenges and EU Trends Petr Steiner, International Fuel Quality Center
	Country Case Study: Russia Vadim Donchenko, Ministry of Transport, Russia
	Country Case Study: Kazakhstan Akmaral Kalmuratova, "Centre of expertise and certification of oil and oil products ORGANIC LTD"
	Panel Discussion

	Coffee break
	Preliminary Working Groups: Identification of Key issues to Discuss in Day 2 Working Groups Moderator
Day 2 Moderator: Michael Walsh
	Summary of Day 1, Agenda for Day 2 Moderator
Continuation: Challenges and Opportunities for Cleaner Fuels and Vehicles
	Cleaner Vehicle Technology - The Systems Approach Michael Walsh
	Country Case Study: Georgia Nino Tkhilava, Ministry of Environment Protection and Natural Resources of Georgia
	Case Study Uzbekistan
	Coffee break
	Liquid Biofuels in EECCA Fatin Ali Mohamed, United Nations Industrial Development Organization (UNIDO)
	Panel Discussion
Moving Forward: Discussion and Next Steps
	Introduction to Working Groups Moderator
	Working Groups
	Lunch
	Working Groups, continued
	Coffee Break
	Report Back of the Working Groups
	Towards Improved Fuel Quality & Vehicle Standards in EECCA: Agreement on Recommendations & Next Steps Moderator
	Closing Remarks REC Caucasus