

melting ice a hot topic?

ask an energy company

In 1995, installed global wind power capacity was 4,800 megawatts of electricity. At the end of 2005 the figure had increased twelve-fold to more than 59,000 megawatts. The Global Wind Energy Council estimates that over a third of the world's electricity could be generated by wind by 2050.

UNEP

United Nations Environment Programme
www.unep.org/wed/2007