STUDENT VIDEOCONFERENCE FOR WORLD ENVIRONMENT DAY 2008

Kick the Habit! Towards A Low Carbon Economy

On 28 May, students around the world, including videoconference sites in Malaysia, Australia, United States, and Canada will be sharing what they are doing in their schools and communities (along with students assembled at UN headquarters in New York) to reduce greenhouse gases. This event is being organized to increase awareness of the contributions that young people are making to achieve a low carbon life style and to empower others to do the same.

TIME: 9AM – 12PM

DATE: Wednesday, 28 May 2008

LOCATION: Dag Hammarskjöld Library Auditorium, United Nations
(First Avenue & 46th Street, New York City)

If you would like to participate in this event at UN Headquarters, please send an email to: cyberschoolbus@un.org by 20 May indicating the name of your school and how many students plan to attend. All participating schools will be acknowledged in the programme.

If you are not able to attend, teachers and students may also send comments and questions via the UN Cyberschoolbus website (cyberschoolbus.un.org) which will host a live webcast of the event on 28 May.
